

Prices effective July 17, 2015:

Solidification and Disposal of Liquid Waste &amp; Sludge
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• $75.00 per ton plus $1.00 solidification fee per gallon and 4.712% general excise tax</li></ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Gallons are calculated at 250 gallons to the ton</li></ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Customers need to determine the percentage of solids, otherwise they will be charged 100% liquid</li></ul>

Treatment charge (per job)
$150.00 plus 4.712% general excise tax.

Acceptable material for Solidification. In accordance with the Department of Health, Office of Solid Waste Management, permit RM-0016-93, only liquid waste and sludge from known sources can be accepted for solidification. Allowable petroleum contaminants are limited to the following petroleum products: Gasoline, diesel or heavier oils. Sludge containing greater than 50ppm polychlorinated biphenyl's (PCB) cannot be accepted for solidification.

Please call our Purchasing and Compliance office at 668-4561 for additional information.